

LICENSE PLATE BINGO

INSTRUCTIONS:

Each participant will need a game board for each game played. Using the list of states below, write the name of a state in each of the license plate frames on this page in whatever order you like (everyone's board should be different), then when you see a license plate from one of your states, mark it off on the board. The first player to check off five plates in a row (horizontally, vertically or diagonally) wins that round! Be sure to print plenty of blank boards — this game is hard to stop playing!
